ALUMNEWS

by Bob Booker

Where in the world are they and what are they doing? Recently, the NBBI board of directors asked us to form a committee for the express purpose of: (1) re-establishing contact with our alumni; (2) connecting with present students regarding their future Alumni status; and (3) finding ways to re-develop the Alumni Association. The committee has seven members: Bob Booker ('68, NBBI faculty), Dave Goupille ('84, pastor), Pete Grenier ('88, pastor), Kirby Rushton (ABM '97, carpenter), Lianne Bourgoin ('00, homemaker), Heidi Clark ('06, NBBI staff), and Liz Herlan ('10, NBBI student and entering her fourth year). We would encourage you as alumni to contact me at <bob.booker@nbbi.ca> or phone (506) 375-2241 with any questions, concerns or ideas regarding how to rekindle the alumni spirit and how we can connect with you. We would also encourage you to attend Spring Conference, April 29-May 2. On Saturday afternoon, May 1, there will be a special alumni informational meeting and open forum. Please help us to help and encourage you.

The Word of Hope in the New Millennium

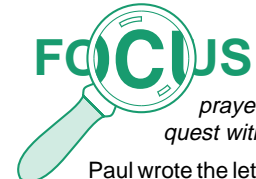

VOL. 51 NO. 5 MAY 2010

Conscious that at my age I have more days behind me than before me, I am preparing for the "stretch run" and have been reading Paul's epistle to the Philippians. I have turned to the epistle of Joy as I remembered with fondness my predecessor, Ken Robins who so role-modeled the joy of the Spirit. Paul's prayerful remembrance of the Philippians caught my attention and two words leaped out, "with joy".

WITH JOY

Philippi and, the Word of God is what he preached and taught there. He met a praying woman-Lydia; a demon possessed woman whose conversion led to a riot in the city, landing Paul in prison. In difficult circumstances, Paul and Silas sang praises at midnight and the jailer was converted, took Paul into his house, fed him and "rejoices, believing in God with all his house."

There is nothing that brings joy to a godly person's heart than "productive prayer meetings", "powerful workings of God" and "conversions in the midst of controversy". Paul remembered the past with joy.

Philippians 1:3-4, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy."

Paul wrote the letter to the Philippians as servant to saints. That was not just a formal salutation from Paul it was the "culminating characteristic" of a humble man's lifetime ministry for God. He respected and loved the people of God who he refers to as saints. He thanked God for them and his prayerful remembrance of them was always accompanied with joy. Joy characterized the apostle Paul's ministry from start to finish. Joy was a career choice goal for Paul, Acts 20:24. It can be defined as cheerfulness, inner calmness, and when included with the word "rejoice" in this epistle, can be found 16 times in these few short chapters.

by John Hoag

"As long as His Spirit is in control, there can be no such thing as competition by those who are under that control."

Paul's joy came not from having the conveniences of comfortable living; it came from conforming to the will, Word and work of God. The will of God brought Paul to

The Open Bible Bulletin is published monthly and has a sevenfold purpose: 1. To present sound Biblical teaching. 2. To generate interest in missionary work around the world. 3. To emphasize the imperative of personal evangelism. 4. To explore current issues that may detrimentally affect the Christian church. 5. To keep friends posted on staff, student and school activities and needs. 6. To stimulate earnest, believing prayer for New Brunswick Bible Institute. 7.
